They Had Names: Liberty County, Georgia Estate Inventories 1824-1849

PROJECT INFORMATION

They Had Names is an award-winning digital humanities project dedicated to uncovering, preserving, and sharing information about the lives of enslaved and formerly enslaved people in coastal Georgia Liberty and Bryan Counties.

Drawing on probate records, court cases, deeds, church records, and other archival sources, the project makes these histories accessible through searchable abstracts and transcriptions, indexes, and interpretive essays.

By using digital tools to recover individual names and stories, They Had Names bridges archival research and public history, ensuring that voices often omitted from the historical record are visible to descendants, researchers, and the wider community.

Whether you're a descendant searching for family connections or a historian studying this community, They Had Names provides the tools to piece together lives that might otherwise remain hidden. Every name tells a story, and every person deserves to be remembered as an individual, not as property. The project includes abstracts or transcripts of every will, estate inventory and deed record naming enslaved people between 1786 and 1865, as well as many other types of records.

They Had Names started as a Wordpress.com blog, then transitioned in 2018 into a full website: https://theyhadnames.net/. It was created by Stacy Ashmore Cole, a descendant of an enslaving family of Liberty County, Georgia. Cathy Tarpley Dillon served as a dedicated transcription volunteer during 2019-2022. As of 2025, it included more than 40,000 references to named African Americans, enslaved and free.

In 2025, Stacy began assembling the data into free, downloadable books and articles to ensure its availability to future generations. That project includes this ebook.

INTRODUCTION

This is a review of how estate inventories were created in Liberty County and their genealogical value. It is not intended in any way to distract from the fact that pre-Emancipation Liberty County estate inventories were horrific documents, listing living people as property and assigning them a monetary value. It is difficult to read these documents today without being overwhelmed by the human suffering they represent. The only purpose of discussing and abstracting them here is to aid their descendants in finding them and remembering that "they had names."

In the 1750s, a group several hundred European-descended South Carolina planters took advantage of Georgia's abolishment of its laws against slavery to settle in what is now Liberty County, on the Georgia coast. They brought with them an estimated 1000-1500 enslaved people of African descent, whom they used to construct and operate rice and other plantations.

Ironically, given that the majority of this area's population from that time through the Civil War was comprised of enslaved people, the area was given the name Liberty County after the American Revolution because the European-descended planters had been so enthusiastic in their support of the Revolution.

Estate inventories were required for anyone who died owning property, with or without a will. Once a property-owning individual died, his or her executor (if a will naming an executor existed) or administrator (if no will) applied to the courts for letters testamentary to enable that person to secure and administer the estate. As part of this process, the court would name individuals to appraise the property and prepare the inventory. In Liberty County, at least, these were normally property-owning neighbors of the deceased, who were likely to be able to estimate the value of the deceased's property, since it was similar to their own.

An initial estate inventory would usually be filed in the Court of Ordinary (now known as probate court) within a few months of the death. After the estate was wound up, the property left in the estate after payment of debts and bills, etc, would be divided among the heirs, whether the heirs were specified in a will or mandated according to the law if the deceased died intestate (without a will).

If all the heirs were adults, the estate would be re-inventoried and then divided among them. If there were underage heirs, the estate would be re-inventoried and divided among the adult heirs, with a portion set aside for the underage heir(s). When each underage heir reached the age of majority, the estate would be re-inventoried and divided again, with part going to the now-adult heir and a portion kept for any remaining underage heirs.

The estate would be divided into portions, or “lots,” that were as equal in value as possible. In Liberty County, lot numbers were normally drawn by the heirs out of a hat. The heirs would pay each other, or be paid, if they received a lot that was under or over the average value.

Each of these inventories and divisions was documented in a court record.

Enslaved people were considered chattel property, with “chattel” referring to “movable” property, as opposed to real estate. Estate inventories normally included only chattel property, although sometimes land would be listed.

For those attempting to find their ancestors among this enslaved population, estate inventories are invaluable records. Wills usually named only the enslaved people who were the subjects of special bequests or “favor,” such as manumission. Bills of sale, deeds of gift, and other such deed records might or might not have been recorded in the court system. Though those recorded deeds survive, most of the unrecorded ones do not. Estate inventories were part of a legal process and thus were always recorded.

Estate inventories sometimes just listed enslaved individuals’ names and “values.” Even with these minimalist documents, however, clues often stand out. Look for women’s names followed by names assigned lesser values in descending order. These may be families with children listed in age order. These can only be clues in cases where the relationship was not specified, but these clues may spark other confirming research.

The 1863 estate inventory for Bartholomew Busby is an example of this. In this image, Margaret was valued at $1000. Augustus, Abram, and George followed her in the list in descending order by value. Tenah was next at $1000, followed by Joe, Peggy and Judy in descending order by value. Robin then followed at $1100. From other research, it is known that Augustus, Abram and George were Margaret’s children, although this is not stated in the inventory. It is possible also that Joe, Peggy and Judy were Tenah’s children. This positioning in the estate inventory is a cue for further reseseach.

The list of names of the enslaved people is in exactly the same order as in the original inventory. This makes it possible to look for instances of families being listed in age order.

Other estate inventories may name relationships, especially mother/child or husband/wife. (Although enslaved people were not legally permitted to marry, there were extralegal marriages recognized by the enslavers and enslaved husbands and wives would be described as such in the enslavers' probate documents.) Ages and occupations were also sometimes listed.

If an estate took years to be wound up because there were multiple underage heirs, comparing these documents across time will often indicate deaths or possible sales as people "disappear" from the records.

The estate inventories listed in this book are in date order. There are usually two dates listed: the date the appraisers took their oaths before a court official and the date the inventory was recorded in the Court of Ordinary. Only the enslaved people named in the inventory are listed, not any other "property." To find what else was listed in the inventory, see the citation at the end of each inventory. It has a link to the digitized document on FamilySearch.org. (FamilySearch.org is a genealogical website. To use it, you will need to create an account, but both the account and all the information on the website are free.)

In order to facilitate including these inventories in a database, they were created with a standardized header with field names for each piece of information commonly found within. Note especially whether an "administrator" or an "executor" were named. If an "executor" is named, the deceased left a will. The "notes" field includes any out-of-the-ordinary remarks made within the inventory.

The end of this book includes an index of the enslaver names. Why not an index of the enslaved people? Because only first names are included in the inventories, and the spelling of those names varies across inventories, devising an index for them was problematic. Fortunately, an index substitute exists. While compiling these inventories, I created a spreadsheet with the names of the enslaved people and their enslaver's name and donated it to Enslaved.org's Journal for Slavery and Data Preservation. You may found the spreadsheet here: https://dataverse.harvard.edu/dataset.xhtml?persistentId=doi:10.7910/DVN/03HR2N. This permanent link will give you the opportunity to download both the spreadsheet and a description of the data.

To use this spreadsheet as an index, open it in a spreadsheet program (like Excel) and sort it by either Column I (actual name of the enslaved person as listed in the original inventory) or Column H (a standardized version of the names to facilitate sorting). This will show you every instance of, for example, Aaron, as the name of an enslaved person. Note the names of enslavers who held individuals by that name in slavery, and look for those names in this book's index to see the estate inventories to evaluate whether this might have been your ancestor (in conjunction with other evidence, of course).

You can also search this book when viewing it on a computer by typing Ctrl-f, which will open a search bar. Enter the name you are searching for, and press Enter. Alternative spellings have been included in the records to facilitate searching.

Then the "division of negroes into four lots" was listed, with some of the individuals in the lots not having been included in the initial list. "Old Moll" was not included in the division (for an unknown reason).

"State of Georgia, Liberty County } Know all men by these presents, that we, Charlton Hines and Wm. J. Way, are bound and obliged unto Josiah Wilson and Daniel M. Stewart in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, to be paid to the said Josiah WIlson and Daniel Stewart for the which payment, well and truly to be made and done, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals, and dated this fifth day of January eighteen hundred and thirty /1830/.

"The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bounden Charlton Hines & Wm. J. Way do well and truly abide by and stand to a decision or award to be made up by & between Joseph Jones, George W. Walthour, Wm. N. Way and Raymond Harris (the two first named persons chosen by Joseiah Wilson, and the two latter by the said Charlton Hines and Wm. J. Way) to arbitrate and settle certain matters and things in dispute between the said Charlton Hines and Wm. J. Way, and said Josiah WIlson and Damiel M. Stewart, in relation to the wills and estates of the late Genl Daniel Stewart deceased, and his wife Mrs. Sarah Stewart; allowing the said arbitrators, should they differ, to choose a fifth person or umpire, to stand to and abide by the decision or award of said umpire, then this obligation to be void, or else to be and remain in full force and virtue. "Georgia, Liberty County } We, the undersigned arbitrators, being duly sworn and qualified to settle all matters & things in dispute between the parties named in the annexed bond, do unanimously agree, that the crop of eighteen hundred and twenty nine (1829) made on the plantation of Genl. D. Stewart deceased, shall be rateably divided between the Est. of Genl. D. Stewart and the Est. of Mrs. Sarah Stewart. All current expenses of the year to be proportionably paid by the two estates; viz. overseer's wages and plantation expenses (not including Doctors' bills). And we do consider the bequest of gift of Mrs. Stewart of certain furniture, named in her will, to be legal, and authorized by Genl. D. Stewart's will. And we do agree and recommend the said crop of 1829 to be divided on the plantation, including what has been waggoned to Riceborough. This to be considered our final award between the parties at variance. [Signed by] Jos. Jones, Geo. W. Walthour, Wm. N. Way, Raymond Harris. Recorded 15 March 1830 [by] E. Baker Clk."

Value of enslaved persons: $2850
Comments: "...being called on by Charlton Hines Esqr. Guardian of the minors of Samuel Lewis, to appraise and divide the property left to said heirs by Mrs. Drusilla Lewis…" Lot #1 was drawn by Mr. J. Parsons. [Status of other lots not specified, but perhaps left in the estate for minors.] NOTE: Cattle worth $90 and cash of $328.76 was included in the inventory; there was also an entry for "Watch" worth $150. This could actually be a (very valuable) watch, but just in case it is actually an enslaved person named Watch, it is noted here that "Watch" was drawn in lot #1.

Liberty County Estate Division

William Anderson - 1841-12-14

Location: Liberty County, Georgia
Deceased: Anderson, William
Date Sworn: 1841-12-14
Appraisers: Thomas Quarterman, Sidney Fleming, Charles B. Jones
Estate Administrator: Joseph A. Anderson (acting as guardian for the minor children)

Date Recorded: 1850-07-23
Recording Official: J.S. Bradwell, Clk
Total Value of Property Appraised: $13764

Comments: William Anderson's estate was initially appraised in 1825 (here). The division of the estate's enslaved people appears not to have taken place until the minor children came of age. On 14 December 1841, Thomas Quarterman, Sidney Fleming and Chas. B. Jones swore before E.H. Bacon that “upon application of Mrs. Mary E. Anderson, the widow of William Anderson deceased & her three children who being of proper age (to wit) Joseph A. Anderson, Sarah Anderson & Marion Anderson for a division of the remaining negroes belonging to the estate of said William Anderson” they would appraise and divide all “the said negroes belonging to said estate” who would be produced for them by Joseph A. Anderson “who being of full age and acting as the next friend and agent to the parties concerned.” The appraisal and division was performed on January 6, 1842. The lots were drawn as follows:

Liberty County Estate Inventory & Division

John Bacon - 1842-03-12

Location: Liberty County, Georgia
Deceased: Bacon, John
Date Sworn: 1842-03-12
Appraisers: Geo. W. Walthour, James S. Bradwell, Wm. [William] Q. Baker
Estate Guardian: "Guardian of the minors of the estate" [not named]
Court Officer: Thomas W. Quarterman, J.P.
Date Recorded: 1843-03-22
Recording Official: E.Way [Liberty County Superior Court Clerk]
Total Value of Property Appraised: $3893
Value of enslaved persons: $3800
Comments: The listed enslaved people were divided into two lots. The first lot was drawn by Mary W. Bacon, and lot no. 2 was the property of the estate of the minor James W. Bacon, which was then divided into four more lots, drawn by the heirs of that estate.

"We the appraisers & dividers do certify that lot no. one was drawn by Mary W. Bacon & lot no. 1 due lot no. 2 fifty dollars & fifty cents & lot no. 2 the property of estate Jas. W. Bacon." The appraisers then stated that the heirs of the estate of the "minor James W. Bacon" showed them the property of that estate as follows, and that they were divided into four lots:

Charles 450 Lot #1
Jack 500 Lot #2 [NOTE: "(spencer)" was written after Jack's name.]
Billy 450 Lot #4
Teresa & child 450 Lot #3 [NOTE: It appears that Toney in the inventory below was Teresa's child]
Murriah 400

Murriah was said to have been sold to Mrs. Bacon and that money divided among the heirs. The other 4 lots due to James Bacon's estate were drawn as follows:

1 -- Joseph R. Bacon
2 -- William Spencer
3 -- Miss Mary W. Bacon
4 -- Mrs Mary J. Bacon

NOTE: See the 1834 estate inventory of Major John Bacon, which has all the names below

except that of Toney, who apparently was born after 1834 and is listed as a child. (See citation below.)

Date Recorded: not given
Recording Official: not listed

The document then proceeded to say: "By the request of Mr. Jos. S. Baker and William Spencer we proceeded to appraise such of the goods and chattels of the Estate of Bennet as were shown us by them" and then lists household items valued at $162.87. Continues: "Personally appeared E.H. Bacon and Oliver Stevens Sen. who being sworn deposeth and ?saith? that they have appraised the foregoing articles and to which their names are signed. Sworn & subscribed this 25 June 1842, T.W. Quarterman, J.P." Signed by E.H. Bacon and Oliver Stevens. [NOTE: An estate inventory was made for William B. Bennet, minor, in 1844 by guardian Jos. S. Baker. The slaves listed here in Lot #2 were in that estate inventory. Possibly William B. Bennet was coming of age at that time. In March 1842, Joseph S. Baker and William Spencer took out a guardianship bond for William Spencer to act as guardian for William B. Bennet, said to be the child of the deceased Matthew Bennet. Names in this inventory match other inventories for Matthew Bennet.]

Estate Guardian: Jos. [Joseph] E. Maxwell
Court Officer: G.W. Dunham, J.I.C.L.C.

Total Value of Property Appraised: $15,700.00
Value of enslaved persons: $14730.00
Comments: Described as "the goods and chattels and credits of W.E. & Benj. S. Screven as shall and be produced and shown by you by Jos. E. Maxwell guardian." Although Charles Odingsell Screven is not mentioned in this document, lot #1 was drawn by Joseph E. Maxwell, guardian of Benj. S. Screven, and lot #2 by W.E. Screven. Charles Odingsell Screven's will (1830) mentioned sons Benjamin Smith Screven and William Edward Screven. William Edward Screven is said by online sources to have been born in 1822 or 1823, so probably had turned 21 in 1844, causing his portion of the estate to be disbursed. Benjamin is believed to have been born in 1826, so would have still been a minor. [Of course, please check all of this information.]

Date Sworn: 1844-10-29
Appraisers: John E. McCall, V. [Valentine] Grest, Smith S. Hart

Date Recorded: 1845-02-17

Comments: Following is the appraisement and division of the estate of Joseph Andrews, which belonged to his children, as shown to the appraisers by their guardian, who was listed in one place as Joseph Andrews (probably a mistake] and in the other as John S. Andrews. Four enslaved people were appraised and divided into four lots, divided as follows:

2 & 3 – “not drawn, the rest of the heirs being minors”

Liberty County Estate Inventory

William Johnson - 1844-12-31

Location: Liberty County, Georgia
Deceased: Johnson, William [see comments]
Date Sworn: 1844-12-31
Appraisers: D.B.M. Shephard, Asa Warnall, Benj. [Benjamin] Weathers
Estate Guardian: Z.L. Boggs J.P. [see comments]
Court Officer: Z.L. Boggs, J.P.
Date Recorded: 1845-02-14
Recording Official: J.S. Bradwell, Clerk
Total Value of Property Appraised: $5568.64
Value of enslaved persons: $4225.00
Comments: This was described as "the estate of William Johnson, lunatic," and Z.L. Boggs was said to be his guardian. On 7 October 1844 Z.L. Boggs was declared by the court to be Johnson's guardian, describing Johnson as a "lunatic or idiot." It is not clear whether William Johnson's estate was being appraised because he had died, or because he had been declared a lunatic and his property needed to be appraised to be turned over to the guardian. This would require more research.
